For Authorization to Acquire Portland)
General Electric Company)

Portland General Electric Company ("Portland General") opposes Portland Building Owners and Managers Association's ("BOMA") Motion to Suspend Proceedings. It is time for a decision on the merits.

Oregon Electric Utility Company, LLC ("Oregon Electric") filed its Application for Authorization to Acquire Portland General Electric Company ("Application") on March 8, 2004. Interested parties have examined, commented and testified about the merits of the Application throughout the intervening eight months. There have been public hearings, rounds of discovery, and rounds of testimony. An evidentiary hearing was held and the hearing record closed. Now that final briefing is underway and oral argument before the Commission is set for December 13, 2004, BOMA wants to put the Application on indefinite hold.

It is time to decide the merits of the Application and bring this proceeding to a conclusion. All parties will benefit by a Commission decision in this proceeding that will bring certainty around the future ownership of Portland General. Portland General urges that BOMA's motion be denied.
