Re: Docket No. PCN 5 – In the Matter of Idaho Power Company’s Petition for Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity.

Dear ALJ Mellgren,

I am writing to seek guidance on the confidential handling of testimony that will reference information contained in Greg Larkin’s confidential medical records that were served on February 8, 2023.

Pursuant to Chief ALJ Nolan Moser’s February 8, 2023 Ruling, the only party with access to Mr. Larkin’s medical records is Idaho Power. However, having reviewed those medical records, Idaho Power plans to provide expert medical testimony responding to Mr. Larkin’s own testimony regarding his health conditions, and that testimony will include a detailed discussion of the information contained in Mr. Larkin’s medical records. Mr. Larkin’s medical records will necessarily be attached as an exhibit to that testimony.

Given the sensitivity of Mr. Larkin’s medical information, Idaho Power proposes that access to the confidential testimony be made available only to you, the Commission and Commission Staff, and to Mr. Larkin himself (as well as to Mr. Larkin’s designated advisors, at his discretion). Accordingly, if Your Honor agrees with this approach, Idaho Power requests your direction as to how the materials can be filed to ensure such limitations.

Thank you for your assistance on this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
