The Community Renewable Energy Association (“CREA”) hereby respectfully submits its Cross-Examination Statement for the hearing scheduled for September 17, 2015. CREA still intends to admit certain exhibits into the record, but CREA understands that the party sponsoring the witness associated with these exhibits is willing to stipulate to such admission without cross examination. Additionally, based upon communications with other parties, CREA understands that no other party intends to cross examine any witnesses. Thus, it appears that there will be no hearing in this matter. Based upon this understanding, CREA waives cross examination, but reserves the right to revise this Cross-Examination Statement if there will be a hearing.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 8th day of September 2015.
