Purpose of Workshop

At this workshop, Staff seeks to learn further about use of the “agent subscription model” in the Community Solar Program in order to inform a decision on use of the model in the Program. At the workshop, two Subscription Managers, Common Energy LLC and Arcadia, will present on their intended use of an agent subscription model in the Program. Utilities will also present their perspectives on this model. Workshop attendees will have the opportunity to ask presenters questions. Staff will use information presented and discussed at the workshop to inform a decision on the use of the model in the Program.
