Purpose: On March 11, 2022, Staff circulated a request for follow-up comments by March 25, 2022 and a link to a doodle poll to identify a time for subsequent discussion of the comments. Staff was not able to find a time that will definitively work for all parties, but believes that March 28, 2022 is likely the best option. However, it does not allow much time to review comments prior to the workshop unless parties submit early.

*Staff asks that parties email Ted Drennan to indicate intent to participate, so that Staff can gauge the usefulness of dedicating time to facilitating this discussion.

Agenda

Staff plans to go through all of the questions posed to parties for written comment and identify any opportunities to improve the proposed scope. Staff's priority questions for workshop discussion are questions 5 and 7 in the request circulated on March 11, and are paraphrased below:

1. Which topics could be addressed without a Staff-led process? Is there another way to accelerate Group 3 or Group 4 issues without diverting resources from Group 1?
2. How should the working group(s) be structured and what can the working group do to facilitate resolution of contested issues?
