BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

LC 57

In the Matter of
PACIFICORP, dba PACIFIC POWER,
2013 Integrated Resource Plan

Description of Synapse Energy
Economics, Inc. on Behalf of Sierra
Club, Pursuant to Order No. 13-095,
Paragraph 10(e)

Synapse Energy Economics, Inc. (Synapse) was founded in May 1996 to consult on electric industry regulatory, restructuring, and environmental issues. Our staff provides research, testimony, reports, and regulatory support to consumer advocates, state energy offices, environmental organizations, and regulatory commissions. Synapse is managed by its President and Founder, Bruce Biewald, and by Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Ezra Hausman.

Synapse assesses the many public policy implications of the energy industry, with an emphasis on consumer and environmental protection. Our work covers various interrelated technical issues, such as integrated resource planning, rate design, energy efficiency policies and incentives, renewable technologies and costs, market monitoring, market design, assessing rate impacts associated with energy policies, transmission expansion planning, load response, revenue requirements, and more. Our research frequently incorporates economic analyses and modeling of wholesale markets to assess reliability, efficiency, and competitiveness.

Synapse works for a wide range of clients throughout the United States, including offices of consumer advocates, public utility commissions and their staff, governmental associations and coalitions, public interest groups, attorneys general, a variety of environmental groups and foundations, and federal agencies such as the Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Justice.

Synapse frequently provides expert witness services on behalf of Sierra Club and other interveners in regulatory hearings throughout the United States.
