I am an independent consultant. I am a sole proprietor with no employees.
I provide financial and economic consulting services to participants in the electric power industry.
I am not currently representing any clients regarding the purchase and sale of generating assets or companies.

B. Information for item 10(e):

Current and recent clients include:

- Colorado Independent Energy Association, advising on utility credit quality issues and potential impacts of PPAs on utility credit quality.
- California Independent Energy Producers Association, advising on utility credit quality issues and potential impacts of PPAs on utility credit quality.
- Chadbourne & Parke, advising on damages claims in a civil litigation concerning a disallowance ordered by a public utilities commission and the impact of that disallowance on the utility's credit quality.
- NRG West Coast LLC, advising on utility credit quality issues and potential impacts of PPAs on utility credit quality. (This assignment is not currently active.)
- Hercules Municipal Utility (and on occasion other California municipal utilities), advising on rate making regarding cost responsibility surcharges. (This assignment is not currently active.)
- South San Joaquin Irrigation District, advising on valuation of utility assets and utility rate making. (This assignment is not currently active.)
- Excelsior Energy, advising on utility credit quality issues and potential impacts of PPAs on utility credit quality. (This assignment is not currently active.)

For my work with independent power trade associations, I do not work directly with the member companies, and my work for the trade associations does not include review or exchange of commercially sensitive or trade secret information with the member companies.
