Re: Docket No. PCN-5 – In the Matter of IDAHO POWER COMPANY, Petition for Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity.

Dear Judge Mellgren,

Idaho Power is writing to request a minor adjustment to the Ruling Your Honor issued today, in which you granted Staff and intervenors a one-week extension of time to file their cross-answering and rebuttal testimony, until March 20. In that Ruling, Your Honor made a corresponding adjustment to the due date for Idaho Power's surrebuttal testimony to April 5. Idaho Power appreciates the corresponding adjustment to the due date for its surrebuttal, but notes that the adjustment actually shortens the period that Idaho Power will have to prepare that testimony from 18 days to 16 days. Given the number and scope of the issues raised in this case to date, Idaho Power would like to avoid having fewer days to produce its testimony. For that reason, Idaho Power asks that the due date for its Surrebuttal Testimony be moved to April 7. That adjustment should not affect any of the subsequent scheduled dates. Although one of our lawyers is not available to work on the testimony on April 6 or 7 due to the holiday of Passover, we would nevertheless appreciate the adjustment to allow our remaining lawyers and Staff to finalize the testimony.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisa Rackner
