Frontier Communications Corporation and Verizon Communications Inc. (collectively, "Applicants") respectfully move the Oregon Public Utility Commission for a Protective Order covering the production and use of "highly confidential" information that may be produced during the litigation of the above entitled case.

As discussed at the Prehearing Conference and reflected in the Prehearing Conference Report and Ruling the parties to this proceeding contemplate the preparation and review of certain documents and information that is especially sensitive and therefore "highly confidential." Applicants have worked with the other parties in the case and have reached agreement on the attached form and language. Given there should be no objection from the other parties, Applicant's request the Commission issues the "Highly Confidential Protective Order" at its earliest opportunity.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of June, 2009.

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL PROTECTIVE ORDER

Scope of this Order-

1. This order governs the acquisition and use of "Highly Confidential Information" in this proceeding.

Definition-

2. "Highly Confidential Information" is competitively-sensitive confidential information that falls within the scope of ORCP 36(C)(7) ("a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information"), the disclosure of which presents risk of business harm.

Designation and Disclosure of Highly Confidential Information.

3. Intervenor in this proceeding may include competitors, or potential competitors. Moreover, information relevant to the resolution of this case is expected to include sensitive competitive information. Parties to this proceeding may receive discovery requests that call for the disclosure of highly confidential documents or information, the disclosure of which imposes a significant risk of competitive harm to the disclosing party or third parties. Parties may designate documents or information they consider to be Highly Confidential and such documents or information will be disclosed only in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

4. Parties must carefully scrutinize responsive documents and information and limit the amount of information they designate as Highly Confidential Information to only information that truly might impose a serious business risk if disseminated without the heightened protections provided in this Section. The first page and individual pages of a document determined in good faith to include Highly Confidential Information must be marked by a stamp that reads: "Highly Confidential Subject to Protective Order".

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL PROTECTIVE ORDER
DOCKET NO. UM 1431

5. Placing a "Highly Confidential" stamp on the first page of a document indicates only that one or more pages contains Highly Confidential Information and will not serve to protect the entire contents of a multi-page document. Each page that contains Highly Confidential Information must be marked separately to indicate where Highly Confidential Information is redacted. The unredacted versions of each page containing Highly Confidential Information and provided under seal also must be stamped "Highly Confidential" and submitted on light blue paper with references (i.e., highlighting or other markings) to show where Highly Confidential Information is redacted in the original document.

6. For each person for whom access to Highly Confidential Information is sought, parties must submit to the party that designated the material as Highly Confidential and file with the Commission a Highly Confidential Information Agreement, in the form prescribed by this Order, certifying that the person requesting access to Highly Confidential Information:

Has a need to know for the purpose of presenting its party's case in this proceeding and is not engaged in developing, planning, marketing, or selling products or services or determining the costs thereof to be charged or potentially charged to customers; and

Has read and understands, and agrees to be bound by, the terms of the General Protective Order in this proceeding, as well as the terms of this Highly Confidential Protective Order.

7. The restrictions in paragraph 6 do not apply to Commission Staff employees or attorneys in the Office of the Attorney General representing Commission Staff. However, Commission Staff shall submit the Highly Confidential Information Agreement, in the form prescribed by this Order, for any external experts or consultants they wish to have review the Highly Confidential Information.

8. Any party may object in writing to the designation of any individual counsel or consultant as a person who may review Highly Confidential documents or information. Any such objection must demonstrate good cause, supported by affidavit, to exclude the challenged counsel or consultant from the review of Highly Confidential documents or information. Written response to any objection must be filed within five days after receipt of the objection. If, after receiving a written response to a party's objection, the objecting party still objects to disclosure of the Highly Confidential Information to the challenged individual, the Commission shall determine whether the Highly Confidential Information must be disclosed to the challenged individual.

9. Designated counsel and consultants will each maintain the Highly Confidential documents and information and any notes reflecting their contents in a secure location to which only designated counsel and consultants have access. No additional copies will be made, except for use as part of prefiled testimonies or exhibits or during the hearing, and then such copies shall also be subject to the provisions of this Order.

10. Staff of designated counsel and staff of designated consultants who are authorized to review Highly Confidential Information may have access to Highly Confidential documents or information for purposes of processing the case, including but not limited to receiving and organizing discovery, and preparing prefiled testimony, hearing exhibits, and briefs. Counsel and consultants are responsible for appropriate supervision of their staff to ensure the protection of all confidential information consistent with the terms of this Order.

11. Any testimony or exhibits prepared that include or reflect Highly Confidential Information must be maintained in the secure location until filed with the Commission or removed to the hearing room for production under seal and under circumstances that will ensure continued protection from disclosure to persons not entitled to review Highly Confidential documents or information. Counsel will provide prior notice (at least one business day) of any intention to introduce such material at hearing, or refer to such materials in cross-examination of a witness. The presiding officer will determine the process for including such documents or information following consultation with the parties.

12. The designation of any document or information as Highly Confidential may be challenged by motion and the classification of the document or information as Highly Confidential will be considered in chambers by the presiding officer(s).

13. Highly Confidential documents and information will be provided to Commission Staff and the Commission under the same terms and conditions of this Protective Order as govern the treatment of Confidential Information provided to Commission Staff and the Commission and as otherwise provided by the terms of the General Protective Order filed in this proceeding.

Preservation of Confidentiality-

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL PROTECTIVE ORDER
DOCKET NO. UM 1431

14. All persons who are given access to Highly Confidential Information by reason of this Order shall not use or disclose the Highly Confidential Information for any purpose other than the purposes of preparation for and conduct of this proceeding, and shall take all necessary precautions to keep the Highly Confidential Information secure. Disclosure of Highly Confidential Information for purposes of business competition is strictly prohibited.

Duration of Protection-

15. The Commission shall preserve the confidentiality of Highly Confidential Information for a period of five years from the date of the final order in this docket, unless extended by the Commission at the request of the party desiring confidentiality. The Commission shall notify the party desiring confidentiality at least two weeks prior to the release of Highly Confidential Information.

Destruction After Proceeding-

16. Counsel of record may retain memoranda, pleadings, testimony, discovery, or other documents containing Highly Confidential Information to the extent reasonably necessary to maintain a file of this proceeding or to comply with requirements imposed by another governmental agency or court order. The information retained may not be disclosed to any person. Any other person retaining Highly Confidential Information or documents containing such Highly Confidential Information must destroy or return it to the party desiring confidentiality within 90 days after final resolution of this proceeding unless the party desiring confidentiality consents, in writing, to retention of the Highly Confidential Information or documents containing such Highly Confidential Information. This paragraph does not apply to the Commission or its Staff.

Additional Protection

17. The party desiring additional protection may move for any of the remedies set forth in ORCP 36(C). The motion shall state:

- a. The parties and persons involved;
- b. The exact nature of the information involved;
- c. The exact nature of the relief requested;
- d. The specific reasons the requested relief is necessary;
and
- e. A detailed description of the intermediate measures, including selected redaction, explored by the parties and why such measures do not resolve the dispute.

The information need not be released and, if released, shall not be disclosed pending the Commission's ruling on the motion.
