BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UM 2410

AMAZON DATA SERVICES, INC.,

Complainant,

v.

PACIFICORP d/b/a PACIFIC POWER,

Respondent.

PACIFICORP AND AMAZON DATA
SERVICES, INC.'S FOURTH JOINT STATUS REPORT AND MOTION TO EXTEND THE SUSPENSION OF THE PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

In accordance with OAR 860-001-0420 and Administrative Law Judge Mapes's Ruling issued on August 21, 2026, PacifiCorp d/b/a Pacific Power (PacifiCorp) and Amazon Data Services, Inc. (ADS), file this status report with the Public Utility Commission of Oregon (Commission). PacifiCorp and ADS have been engaged in good faith settlement negotiations for the past 30 days and have made progress toward a resolution of certain issues in dispute but require additional time to continue negotiations on a potential final settlement of this contested case. The Parties therefore respectfully request the Commission issue an order suspending the procedural schedule and discovery in this proceeding through December 31, 2026, to allow the parties to continue to conduct settlement negotiations.

If the requested suspension is granted, PacifiCorp and ADS agree to file a status report on or before December 31, 2026, either (1) informing the Commission of a settlement; (2) requesting an extension of the stay while the parties continue settlement discussions; or (3) informing the Commission that PacifiCorp and ADS have been unable to reach settlement. If the suspension concludes without the parties reaching a settlement, PacifiCorp and ADS agree to propose a revised procedural schedule to the Administrative Law Judge. PacifiCorp and ADS agree that should they fail to reach settlement, discovery will re-commence consistent with the pre-suspension timelines with each discovery deadline extended by a period equal to the duration of the suspension.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of September 2026.
