List of Members attached

4. The nature and extent of the Petitioner's interest in the proceeding is:

In pursuit of our mission to advocate for the expansion of environmentally responsible renewable energy in the Northwest, we have actively participated in the investigation into the resource value of solar ("RVOS") initiated by the Oregon Public Utility Commission ("Commission"). Idaho Power Company's RVOS could impact opportunities for solar development in Oregon. Therefore, this proceeding could directly affect our mission. No other party can adequately represent Renewable Northwest's interest in this proceeding.

5. The issues the Petitioner intends to raise at the proceeding are:

Renewable Northwest intends to participate as a party and raise issues that are appropriate to the proceeding.

6. The special knowledge or expertise of the Petitioner that would assist the Commission in resolving the issues in the proceeding is:

Renewable Northwest is a regular public interest participant in Commission proceedings. We have expertise in issues relevant to solar development and to the valuation of solar. Of particular relevance to this proceeding, we have participated in UM 1716, UM 1559, UM 1758, as well as in various integrated resource planning processes for Oregon utilities and a multitude of PURPA proceedings.

7. Based on the information provided above in accordance with the Commission's rules of procedure, Renewable Northwest respectfully requests that the Commission grant this Petition to Intervene. Allowing Renewable Northwest to intervene in this proceeding is in the public interest. Moreover, our participation in this docket will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or unreasonably delay the proceeding. OAR 860-001-0300.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of December, 2017.
