NIPPC is a trade association whose members and associate members include independent power producers active in the Pacific Northwest and Western energy markets.¹ The purpose of NIPPC is to represent the interests of its members in developing rules and policies that help achieve a competitive electric power supply market in the Pacific Northwest.

NIPPC's members include independent power producers which may bid into PacifiCorp's 2020 all source request for proposal. NIPPC is committed to fair and open-access transmission service, cost effective power sales, consumer choice in their energy supply, and fair, competitive power markets in the northwest and adjacent markets.

NIPPC has participated in numerous regulatory proceedings intended to promote competitive markets, utility resource procurement, requests for proposals, renewable energy, and diversity of generation ownership, including all the recent major proceedings regarding utility requests for proposals and competitive bidding, including the establishment of the current competitive bidding rules and PacifiCorp recent requests for proposals. NIPPC's intervention will assist the Commission in resolving the issues and will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or delay this proceeding. Finally, NIPPC's interest is not adequately represented by any other party in this proceeding.

WHEREFORE, NIPPC respectfully requests that the Commission grant its petition to intervene with full party status in this proceeding and to appear and participate in all matters as may be necessary and appropriate; and to present evidence, call and examine witnesses, cross-examine witnesses, present argument, and to otherwise fully participate in the proceedings.

Dated this 10th day of March 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

Irion Sanger
