

OREGON PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
(INTEROFFICE CORRESPONDENCE)

DATE: May 11, 2017

TO: File through Roger White

FROM: Armando Fimbres

SUBJECT: Qwest Corporation d/b/a CenturyLink QC (Qwest), Advice No. 2017-005-PL, Pursuant to Qwest's Price Plan ORS 759.255, in compliance with Docket 1354, Qwest Corporation d/b/a CenturyLink QC is filing revisions to its Private Line Transport Services Price List – Fifth Edition,

I have reviewed this filing and recommend that an acknowledgement letter be sent. The filing was submitted on May 9, 2017, and went into effect on May 10, 2017.

In its filing, Qwest explained that the changes proposed in this filing will add language to clarify the application of the Termination Liability Waiver Policy and that the clarifying language will not change the application of terms, conditions or rates. At Staff's request, Qwest provided an email on May 9th further explaining that the clarifying language does not change the conduct of the current business practice or practice. Qwest states that the change simply puts into writing that which is "business as usual".

Pursuant to ORS 759.054, the changes proposed by Qwest to Section 2, Sheet 34 of Private Line Transport Services Price List – Fifth Edition became effective on the data specified by Qwest.
