DISPOSITION: INFORMATION ON PUBLIC COMMENT MEETINGS

Two open house public comment meetings have been noticed in these dockets: one in Salem, to be held May 17, 2006; the other in Portland, to be held May 24, 2006. Each Open House provides an informal process for members of the public to attend, obtain information, ask questions and make comments about the application of Portland General Electric Company (PGE). In an open house setting, there is no program and attendees may come and go as they please. Information is provided by participating parties at individual tables. Attendees will be encouraged to comment, either orally on tape, or by filling out a comment card. The Commission will have a greeter at the door to welcome attendees, explain the layout of the room, hand out comment cards, answer questions and thank attendees for attending.

Commission Staff (Staff), the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) and Applicants will occupy one table each. All intervenors are eligible to participate in the open house. To confirm participation, an intervenor must submit notice of intention to participate in the open houses by close of business on May 5, 2006. If necessary, intervenors will be asked to share table space.

Applicants and intervenors are responsible for creating and printing posterboard sets for display at the open houses. Each table may display one set of posterboards. A set of posterboards shall consist of no more than three individual posterboards that are mounted and measure 20 inches by 30 inches. Each posterboard may express only one key message and three supporting facts.

SAMPLE POSTERBOARD

| Key Message 1 | Key Message 2 | Key Message 3 |
|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| Fact A | Fact A | Fact A |
| Fact B | Fact B | Fact B |
| Fact C | Fact C | Fact C |

Messages should be clear and concise and use straightforward language that does not use industry jargon or acronyms. Participants may also make copies of the posterboards available at the table. The boards must be pre-approved for format and clarity by the ALJ.

Draft posterboards should be submitted to ALJ Smith by the close of business on May 5, 2006. Participants may email draft posterboards to christina.smith@state.or.us. Participants will be notified of approval of submitted posterboards no later than May 10, 2006.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 27th day of April, 2006.

Christina M. Smith
Administrative Law Judge
