

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UE 354

In the Matter of

IDAHO POWER COMPANY,

2018 Annual Power Supply Expense
True-Up.

PREHEARING CONFERENCE
MEMORANDUM

On March 19, 2019, the Public Utility Commission of Oregon held a prehearing conference in this docket. Representatives appeared on behalf of Idaho Power Company, Staff of the Public Utility Commission of Oregon, and the Oregon Citizens' Utility Board.

CUB filed its notice of intervention on February 26, 2019, as permitted by ORS 774.180.

Idaho Power explained three points about the below procedural schedule. First, this procedural schedule is based on a planned April 15, 2019 filing of the company's Oregon Results of Operation (ROO). Second, the schedule assumes a hearing and simultaneous opening and closing briefs are not needed, but if these events are needed, the schedule will be extended. Finally, the schedule includes a requested Commission order date of late May to align with past schedules and to align with a target June 1 effective date for any rate changes.

The following schedule is adopted:

EVENT	DATE
Idaho Power files initial estimate of 2018 PCAM (based on 2017 ROO)	February 22, 2019
Idaho Power files 2018 ROO	April 15, 2019
Idaho Power files final calculation of 2018 PCAM (based on 2018 ROO)	April 15, 2019
Workshop/Settlement Conference <sup>1</sup>	April 30, 2019
Staff/Intervenor Reply Testimony or Settlement and Supporting Brief	May 13, 2019
Idaho Power Rebuttal Testimony	May 20, 2019
Target Date for Commission Order	Late May, 2019

By statute, a person may petition to intervene at any time before the close of the record.<sup>1</sup> Because it is helpful if parties are identified early in the proceedings, the Commission requests that petitions to intervene be filed by the date identified above.

Parties are reminded that attorneys not licensed in Oregon wanting to appear before the Commission in this docket must file an application for admission to appear pro hac vice.<sup>2</sup>

Dated this 25th day of March, 2019, at Salem, Oregon.

NOTICE OF CONTESTED CASE RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Oregon law requires state agencies to provide parties written notice of contested case rights and procedures. Under ORS 183.413, you are entitled to be informed of the following:

Hearing: The time and place of any hearing held in these proceedings will be noticed separately. The Commission will hold the hearing under its general authority set forth in ORS 756.040 and use procedures set forth in ORS 756.518 through 756.610 and OAR Chapter 860, Division 001. Copies of these statutes and rules may be accessed via the Commission's website at www.puc.state.or.us. The Commission will hear issues as identified by the parties.

Right to Attorney: As a party to these proceedings, you may be represented by counsel. Should you desire counsel but cannot afford one, legal aid may be able to assist you; parties are ordinarily represented by counsel. The Commission Staff, if participating as a party in the case, will be represented by the Department of Justice. Generally, once a hearing has begun, you will not be allowed to postpone the hearing to obtain counsel.

Administrative Law Judge: The Commission has delegated the authority to preside over hearings to Administrative Law Judges (ALJs). The scope of an ALJ's authority is defined in OAR 860-001-0090. The ALJs make evidentiary and other procedural rulings, analyze the contested issues, and present legal and policy recommendations to the Commission.

Hearing Rights: You have the right to respond to all issues identified and present evidence and witnesses on those issues. See OAR 860-001-0450 through OAR 860-001-0490. You may obtain discovery from other parties through depositions, subpoenas, and data requests. See ORS 756.538 and 756.543; OAR 860-001-0500 through 860-001-0540.

Evidence: Evidence is generally admissible if it is of a type relied upon by reasonable persons in the conduct of their serious affairs. See OAR 860-001-0450. Objections to the admissibility of evidence must be made at the time the evidence is offered. Objections are generally made on grounds that the evidence is unreliable, irrelevant, repetitious, or because its probative value is outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or undue delay. The order of presenting evidence is determined by the ALJ. The burden of presenting evidence to support an allegation rests with the person raising the allegation. Generally, once a hearing is completed, the ALJ will not allow the introduction of additional evidence without good cause.

Record: The hearing will be recorded, either by a court reporter or by audio digital recording, to preserve the testimony and other evidence presented. Parties may contact the court reporter about ordering a transcript or request, if available, a copy of the audio recording from the Commission for a fee set forth in OAR 860-001-0060. The hearing record will be made part of the evidentiary record that serves as the basis for the Commission's decision and, if necessary, the record on any judicial appeal.

Final Order and Appeal: After the hearing, the ALJ will prepare a draft order resolving all issues and present it to the Commission. The draft order is not open to party comment. The Commission will make the final decision in the case and may adopt, modify, or reject the ALJ's recommendation. If you disagree with the Commission's decision, you may request reconsideration of the final order within 60 days from the date of service of the order. See ORS 756.561 and OAR 860-001-0720. You may also file a petition for review with the Court of Appeals within 60 days from the date of service of the order. See ORS 756.610.
