

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UM 2033

In the Matter of

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY,

2019 Transportation Electrification Plan.

RULING

DISPOSITION: MOTION GRANTED; SCHEDULE ADOPTED

On September 30, 2019, Portland General Electric (PGE) filed its Transportation Electrification Plan, consistent with the Transportation Electrification Plan rules found at OAR 860-087-0020. These rules require that Staff will work with parties to a Transportation Electrification Plan docket to propose a procedural schedule for the review of such plans after it is filed. Under the rule, an administrative law judge may review and approve a proposed schedule.

On October 23, 2019, Staff filed a motion to adopt a proposed schedule designed to in this docket. In support of its motion, Staff states that it circulated its proposed schedule and draft motion, and that no party or stakeholder objected.

RULING

Having shown good cause, Staff's motion is granted and the proposed procedural schedule adopted. I note that the adopted schedule is subject to future change as determined by the Commission. The schedule for this non-contested proceeding shall be as follows:
