

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UG 344

In the Matter of

NORTHWEST NATURAL GAS
COMPANY, dba NW NATURAL,

Request for a General Rate Revision.

PREHEARING CONFERENCE
MEMORANDUM

DISPOSITION: PETITION TO INTERVENE GRANTED; PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE
ADOPTED

On February 1, 2018, the Public Utility Commission of Oregon held a prehearing conference in this docket. The following appearances were noted for the record: Northwest Natural Gas Company (NW Natural), CUB, and NWIGU. Without objection, the NWIGU petition was granted and NWIGU was made a party to the proceedings.

Petitions to Intervene

Prior to the conference, the Northwest Industrial Gas Users (NWIGU) filed a petition to intervene in this docket. No party attending the conference objected to the petition. I find that NWIGU has sufficient interest in the proceedings to participate and that its participation will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or delay the proceedings.¹ The petition to intervene is therefore granted. In addition CUB filed its notice of intervention on January 2, 2018, as allowed under ORS 774.180.

Procedural Schedule

The parties agreed to a proposed schedule for the remainder of the proceeding, which was adopted.

Deadline to file Petitions to Intervene	February 8, 2018
Deadline to file Proposed Budgets for Intervenor Funding	March 5, 2018
Workshops ²	March 5, 2018

Settlement conferences	April 30 and May 1, 2018

² Workshop/Settlement conference dates are included in the scheduled for the parties' convenience. The parties do not need Commission approval to reschedule workshops or settlement conferences.

NW Natural Reply Testimony	May 23, 2018
Settlement conferences	May 30 and May 31, 2018
Staff and Intervenor Rebuttal Testimony	June 20, 2018
NWN Surrebuttal Testimony	July 9, 2018
Parties Prehearing Briefs Due	July 13, 2018
Hearings (subject to Commissioner availability)	July 19 and July 20, 2018
NW Natural Opening Brief	August 9, 2018
Staff and Intervenor Reply Briefs	August 23, 2018
NW Natural Final Brief	August 30, 2018
Closing Oral Arguments (if requested by the Commission)	September 6, 2018
Commission decision Target Date	October 22, 2018

By statute, a person may petition to intervene at any time before the close of the record.¹ But because it is helpful if parties are identified early in the proceedings, the Commission requests that petitions to intervene be filed by the date identified above.

Parties are reminded that attorneys not licensed in Oregon wanting to appear before the Commission in this docket must file an application for admission to appear pro hac vice.³

With respect to the conduct of discovery, the parties agreed upon a seven business day turnaround time on data requests beginning on May 23, 2018, after the filing of NW Natural's reply testimony.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 2018, at Salem, Oregon.

NOTICE OF CONTESTED CASE RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Oregon law requires state agencies to provide parties written notice of contested case rights and procedures. Under ORS 183.413, you are entitled to be informed of the following:

Hearing: The time and place of any hearing held in these proceedings will be noticed separately. The Commission will hold the hearing under its general authority set forth in ORS 756.040 and use procedures set forth in ORS 756.518 through 756.610 and OAR Chapter 860, Division 001. Copies of these statutes and rules may be accessed via the Commission's website at www.puc.state.or.us. The Commission will hear issues as identified by the parties.

Right to Attorney: As a party to these proceedings, you may be represented by counsel. Should you desire counsel but cannot afford one, legal aid may be able to assist you; parties are ordinarily represented by counsel. The Commission Staff, if participating as a party in the case, will be represented by the Department of Justice. Generally, once a hearing has begun, you will not be allowed to postpone the hearing to obtain counsel.

Administrative Law Judge: The Commission has delegated the authority to preside over hearings to Administrative Law Judges (ALJs). The scope of an ALJ's authority is defined in OAR 860-001-0090. The ALJs make evidentiary and other procedural rulings, analyze the contested issues, and present legal and policy recommendations to the Commission.

Hearing Rights: You have the right to respond to all issues identified and present evidence and witnesses on those issues. See OAR 860-001-0450 through OAR 860-001-0490. You may obtain discovery from other parties through depositions, subpoenas, and data requests. See ORS 756.538 and 756.543; OAR 860-001-0500 through 860-001-0540.

Evidence: Evidence is generally admissible if it is of a type relied upon by reasonable persons in the conduct of their serious affairs. See OAR 860-001-0450. Objections to the admissibility of evidence must be made at the time the evidence is offered. Objections are generally made on grounds that the evidence is unreliable, irrelevant, repetitious, or because its probative value is outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or undue delay. The order of presenting evidence is determined by the ALJ. The burden of presenting evidence to support an allegation rests with the person raising the allegation. Generally, once a hearing is completed, the ALJ will not allow the introduction of additional evidence without good cause.

Record: The hearing will be recorded, either by a court reporter or by audio digital recording, to preserve the testimony and other evidence presented. Parties may contact the court reporter about ordering a transcript or request, if available, a copy of the audio recording from the Commission for a fee set forth in OAR 860-001-0060. The hearing record will be made part of the evidentiary record that serves as the basis for the Commission's decision and, if necessary, the record on any judicial appeal.

Final Order and Appeal: After the hearing, the ALJ will prepare a draft order resolving all issues and present it to the Commission. The draft order is not open to party comment. The Commission will make the final decision in the case and may adopt, modify, or reject the ALJ's recommendation. If you disagree with the Commission's decision, you may request reconsideration of the final order within 60 days from the date of service of the order. See ORS 756.561 and OAR 860-001-0720. You may also file a petition for review with the Court of Appeals within 60 days from the date of service of the order. See ORS 756.610.
